Hi Lars

Hope you are well! I moved into my new flat last weekend. I'm ¹_____ (organized) person in the world, so there are still boxes everywhere, but it already feels like home.

The flat is pretty cheap – it's a lot ²_____ (expensive) than my old flat, but it is much ³_____ (far) from my office. It takes about forty minutes to get to work now, but I'm still happy that I moved. The area is very busy, and there are some amazing cafés and restaurants. The Turkish café opposite my flat serves ⁴_____ (delicious) coffee in town! ⁵_____ (good) thing about my flat is that it has a tiny garden, so I'm looking forward to inviting friends round for barbecues in the summer. Hope you can come!

Where I live

Hassan

I moved into this apartment a few months ago. It's much better than my old place. It's bigger and closer to my work, but it's also a bit more expensive. In my last apartment, I lived on my own, but I share this place with my friend Giuseppe. We usually get on pretty well, although I'm tidier than him, so I sometimes get angry if the kitchen is messy.

Marie

I can't believe I live here! It's such a cool place, with a spectacular view of the mountains and a beautiful garden. I love having the place to myself, although my friends Natasha and Gemma often stay over at the weekend. It's a bit untidy at the moment because I haven't got space for all my stuff, but that's fine. Of course, it's summer now, so this is probably the best time to live here. I hope it isn't freezing during the colder months!

Lukas

At the moment, I'm living in a tiny apartment above my parents' garage. I'm very lucky because the rent is very cheap and it's a nice place. The only problem is that it's difficult to invite my friends round because it's so small and I don't want to make a lot of noise. I want to find my own place nearer the university. I'm looking for a house to share with three or four other students, but everything is really expensive.
