

Name: _____

Verb Practice: the verb 'to be'.

1. Complete the dialogue with the words am, is or are.

Vijay: _____ (1) you a new student?

Tanya: Yes, I _____ (2). _____ (3) you new as well?

Vijay: No, I _____ (4) not, but my sister Shakira _____ (5) new to the school.

Tanya: Hello Shakira. Which class _____ (6) you in?

Shakira: I _____ (7) in Mrs. Singh's class.

Tanya: So _____ (8) I. That's great. My friend, Sarah _____ (9) in a different class.

Shakira: Everyone I know _____ (10) in a different class as well.

Tanya: Do you think those girls over there _____ (11) our class as well?

Shakira: I don't know. Look, Mrs. Singh _____ (12) calling us. I think we _____ (13) going inside now.

2. Complete the paragraph using the words was or were.

It _____ (1) nearly the end of the day. We _____ (2) all waiting for the lesson to end.

The first session of the Computer Club _____ (3) after school. There _____ (4) trials for the girls' basketball team as well. I _____ (5) hoping to play well. I knew my friends Julie and Tanya _____ (6) good players and I _____ (7) sure they would be picked for the team.

At last it _____ (8) time for the lesson to finish and soon my friends and I _____ (9) standing outside waiting to begin. Everyone _____ (10) talking excitedly. We _____ (11) divided into two groups. Each group _____ (12) given a ball and told to practice.