Reading: an email

1 Read the email. Write t (true) or f (false). Correct the false sentences.

To: simona@lifemail.com

Subject: What I like and don't like doing

Hi, Simona

Thank you for your email and the brilliant photo!

You want to know what I like doing and what I don't like doing in school. Well, I love learning about the countries of the world. I also like reading about life in huge cities like Tokyo and Mexico City. I love reading stories, too. We read a story every Friday afternoon with Mr Dubois. He's my favourite teacher. He's very funny. After reading a story with Mr Dubois, we usually write a story of our own. I like writing stories, but it's not easy!

I don't like doing homework every night. I think we have too much homework, but the teachers say, 'You have to do your homework, Catherine!'

What about you, Simona? What are your favourite subjects? What do you like doing? What do you really not like doing?

Email soon!

Cathy

1 Cathy doesn't like reading about cities. ☒ f

Cathy likes reading about cities.

2 Cathy's class reads a story every week. ☐

3 Cathy doesn't like Mr Dubois. ☐

4 Cathy doesn't like writing stories. ☐

5 Cathy likes doing homework every night. ☐

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Writing 1

1 Complete the table with information about you.

My favourite subjects at school
Things I like doing at school
Things I don't like doing at school

Help with Writing

When you write an email to someone you know, begin with 'Hi, _____' or 'Hello, _____'. If you don't know the person or don't know them well, begin with 'Dear _____'.

2 Imagine you are Simona. Use the information in the table in Activity 1 to help you write an email to Cathy, answering all of her questions.

To: cathy@anglomail.com

Subject: What I like and don't like doing

Hi, Cathy

Thanks for your email! _____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

Email soon!

Simona

LIVEWORKSHEETS