

I like to ... Go – Play – Do

Different sports or activities need different verbs. Put the sports and activities into the correct boxes.

Go	Play	Do

basketball	sumo	cycling	weightlifting	aerobics	fishing	wrestling	badminton
boxing	hiking	golf	taekwondo	camping	yoga	aikido	billiards/pool
table tennis	karate	surfing	football	volleyball	hockey	gymnastics	swimming
snowboarding	jogging	skiing	kendo	rollerblading	archery	dancing	soccer

Conversation examples:

A: What do you like to do, Chulsoo?

B: I like to _____ fishing with my dad. How about you Minsoo?

A: Sometimes I _____ soccer or _____ taekwondo

A: What do you like to do for fun?

B: Well, on Saturdays I _____ swimming.

A: That sounds fun. I like to _____ pool with my friends.

Please note!

Many activities that usually end in -ing can actually be verbs. In that situation, you can just use the verb and not add a go/play/do.

Example:

(Verb + -ing = noun) skiing :

I like to go skiing in the mountains during winter vacation.

(Verb) ski :

I like to ski in the mountains during winter vacation.

(Verb + -ing = noun) bowling :

I went bowling yesterday, and I lost the game and hurt my arm.

(Verb) bowl :

I bowled yesterday, and I lost the game and hurt my arm..