INSTRUCTIONS:

Read the following passage carefully, then answer the questions that follow.

Tonique Williams-Darling A Bahamian Champion

Tonique Williams made her entrance on 17 January, 1976, shortly after the holiday season. She was delivered right at home in Nassau, Bahamas. She can trace her earliest memories in running to the times she accompanied her grandmother and aunt to Fort Charlotte, when they did their daily exercising.

Tonique's earliest training in running began in elementary school during Physical Education classes, as well as the yearly inter-house competitions. Her organized training began when she was fourteen and had joined the "Bahamas Tigers", a local track and field club. She considers that her real introduction to the world of international track and field was CARIFTA, which she participated in from 1992 to 1995. Later, she was able to obtain an athletic scholarship with the University of Georgia "Bulldogs".

Tonique's life is guided by a deeply held belief that you can achieve whatever goals you have if you work hard enough. This belief has been key to her success, in athletics as well as in her education.

Tonique has some short and long term goals. First, she would like to make history at the 2008 China Olympics by being the first Bahamian to win two Olympic Gold Medals. Second, within the first year following the next Olympics, she would like to start a family with her husband, Track and Field star, Dennis Darling. Third, she envisions herself working in the field of finance, in which she holds a degree, or running her own business.

World champion Gold Medal winning athlete, Tonique Williams-Darling, will continue to serve as an inspiration to all Bahamian athletes who want to achieve success elegantly.
