Narrative Writing Project

Instructions:
Write a personal narrative based on one of the three given topics. Your story should be at least 200 words and describe a real or realistic experience with clear details and emotions.
Instructions:

1. Choose One Topic:
   - A Day That Changed Everything – Write about a day when something unexpected happened and how it affected you.
   - A Difficult Choice I Had to Make – Tell about a time when you had to make a tough decision and what you learned from it.
   - A Time I Overcame a Challenge – Describe an experience when you faced a problem or fear and how you managed to overcome it.
2. Structure Your Story:
   - Introduction: Set the scene and introduce the situation.
   - Rising Action: Describe what led to the main event or problem.
   - Climax: The most exciting or emotional part of your story.
   - Falling Action & Conclusion: Explain how the situation ended and what you learned.
3. Writing Requirements:
   - Minimum 200 words.
   - Use past tense and proper grammar & punctuation.
   - Include descriptive details and dialogue to make the story engaging.
   - Write neatly and legibly on the provided paper. Do not type or print your story.
   - No excessive erasing or scratching out – plan before you write.
4. Submission Guidelines:
   - Write your story on the official paper provided.
   - Write your name and date at the top of the page.
   - Submit the completed story by [insert deadline].

Assessment Criteria:
✅ Engagement & Realism – Story feels real and relatable.
✅ Organization & Structure – Clear beginning, middle, and end.
✅ Grammar & Vocabulary – Proper language use and varied vocabulary.
✅ Descriptive Writing – Strong use of emotions, details, and dialogue.
✅ Neatness & Presentation – Clear handwriting and well-organized work.
💡 Tip: Think of an experience that had an impact on you and write it as if you're telling a story!
📖 Happy writing! 😊
