

MAY 2016 PP

Fill in missing prepositions

1. He will take part this contest.
2. Can you pickthe pen for me?
3. Elections take every year.
4. My family consistsfour people.
5. There aren't plenty guys around here.
6. You need to go to the gym and workmore.
7. The army are helping to clearafter the floods.
8. She's always willing help out.
9. He is also tested least four times a month.
10. It's really useful lots of people
11. He decided to callhis regular press conference
12. If you buy this shampoo, you will get a conditionerfree.
13. The room was packed people, it was so crowded.
14. I would like to complainthe service I received in your restaurant.
15. Could you give me some advicelearning English?
16. Everybody, please sitwe will start our conference in a moment.
17. You need to prepareyour Matura exam.
18. Our tastes differ each other.
19. She understands and doesn't make fun me
20. We hangevery weekend and do things together.
21. Tom was the first to show for breakfast.
22. You can also sign for the free email newsletter.
23. Emily is involved many school activities, including band and track.
24. He hadn't eaten a thing except one forkful of salad
25. That's altogether typical Tom!