

1. Complete the text below using the words and phrases from the box. You may need to change the form of the verbs.

get away with something – intervene – make a fuss 2x– (not) mean to do something – lend a helping hand – overreact to something – turn a blind eye

Emma was walking through the park when she saw a group of teenagers bullying a younger boy. She wasn't sure whether to (1) _____ or just walk away, but she knew that if no one helped him, they would probably (2) _____ it and keep doing the same thing to others.

A few people nearby noticed what was happening, but they chose to (3) _____ rather than get involved. However, one woman decided to (4) _____ and told the teenagers to stop.

The boy who had been bullied looked upset, but he said, "They probably (5) _____ hurt me. They were just joking." The woman shook her head and said, "Even if they didn't mean to, it doesn't make it okay."

Another passerby saw what was happening and immediately (6) _____, shouting at the teenagers in anger. The woman calmed him down and said, "There's no need to (7) _____. Let's just make sure the boy is okay."

After the situation was resolved, the woman offered to walk the boy home. He thanked her and said, "I'm really glad you were here to (8) _____."

2. Choose the correct answer for each question.

1. The police managed to catch the suspect just hours after he tried to _____.
 - a) release a suspect
 - b) hold up a bank
 - c) drop charges
 - d) acquit someone
2. The jury found the defendant not guilty, so the judge decided to _____.
 - a) convict him
 - b) arrest him for the robbery

- c) acquit him
 - d) charge him with the robbery
3. If a person is found guilty of a serious crime, the court will _____ them.
- a) accuse
 - b) convict
 - c) release
 - d) drop charges to
4. The police had enough evidence to _____ the suspect _____ robbery.
- a) charge / with
 - b) accuse / of
 - c) release / for
 - d) detain / of
5. The suspect was taken into custody but later set free when the prosecutor decided to _____.
- a) convict him
 - b) detain him
 - c) charge him with the robbery
 - d) drop charges

3. Complete the second conditional sentences with the correct form of the verbs below.

avoid – be – complain – get – miss – make – trust – regret - get - lose - be - have - break - get - trust - be

1. If she _____ more confident, she _____ better opportunities at work.
2. We _____ the train if we _____ up earlier.
3. If he _____ about everything, people _____ him more.
4. They _____ their keys so often if they _____ more organized.
5. If you _____ more effort into your studies, you _____ failing the exam.
6. I _____ that decision if I _____ more time to think about it.
7. If they _____ the rules, they _____ into trouble.
8. She _____ you with her secrets if you _____ so careless with information.

4. Complete the text with the correct form of the verbs in brackets to make 3rd conditional sentences.

The way people engage in activism has changed dramatically over the years. In the past, if social media _____ (not exist), campaign organisers would not have been able to spread their messages so quickly. Many important protests _____ (not take place) if people had not heard about them through online platforms.

If governments _____ (react) faster to early warnings about climate change, the environmental crisis would not have become so severe today. Similarly, if more people had supported crucial social movements in their early stages, major policy changes _____ (happen) much sooner.

Before the internet, if journalists had not covered major demonstrations, the public _____ (not know) what was happening in other parts of the world. If activists _____ (rely) only on traditional media, their impact would have been much smaller.

In the past, if someone had taken a photo at a protest, it _____ (take) days before it appeared in newspapers. But without access to modern technology, if they _____ (want) to share it with a wider audience, they would have struggled to get it seen.

5. Complete the text with the correct form of the verbs in brackets (mixed conditionals).

The World Food Programme (WFP) plays a crucial role in fighting hunger worldwide. If it _____ (not provide) emergency food supplies in past crises, millions of people would be suffering from severe malnutrition today.

Many communities _____ (not have) access to nutritious meals now if WFP had not established long-term food distribution programs years ago. If governments had invested more in sustainable agriculture in the past, global hunger _____ (not be) such a severe issue today.

If WFP did not respond quickly to ongoing food shortages, the consequences _____ (be) catastrophic in previous crises. Likewise, if more people _____ (donate) regularly in previous years, humanitarian organizations like WFP could expand their impact even further today.

Education is also affected by hunger. Many children _____ (complete) their education if they were not forced to work due to food insecurity today. If WFP _____ (not exist), countless people would be struggling even more to survive in war-torn areas right now.

Thanks to organizations like WFP, millions of lives are saved each year, but if global efforts had started (start) earlier, the world _____ (not face) such extreme food shortages today.