

Question words How much

How much is a hot dog?

It's sixteen dollars.

How much are three hamburgers?

They're sixty dollars.How much → price (e.g. twenty dollars)Practice

Complete the questions and the answers using the given words.

sixty-eight one hundred and ten thirty-five twenty seventy-eight

1 A: _____ is a slice of pizza?

B: It's twenty-four dollars.

2 A: _____ are two hot dogs?

B: They're _____ dollars.

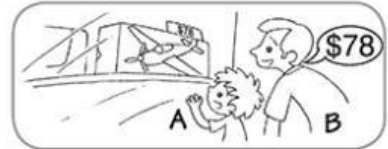

3 A: _____ these cherries?

B: They're _____.

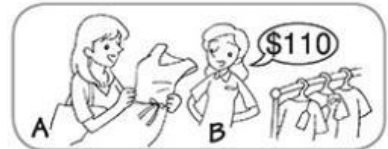

4 A: _____ the plane?

B: _____

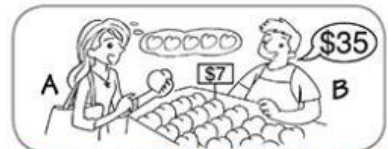

5 A: _____ this dress?

B: _____

6 A: _____ five peaches?

B: _____

Date: _____

Question words

How • How many • How much

B: How do you usually come here?A: I usually come here by bus.A: How much is a bag of sweets?B: It's twenty dollars.A: How many sweets are there in one bag?B: There are ten sweets.

How	→	way (e.g. by bus)
How many	→	quantity (e.g. ten)
How much	→	price (e.g. twenty dollars)

Warm up

Complete the questions with the correct question words.

- _____ is the teddy bear?
- _____ boys are there in your class?
- _____ do you go to the park?
- _____ are two bottles of lemon tea?
- _____ pandas are there in the zoo?

Seventy dollars.

Twenty.

By tram.

Sixteen dollars.

Two.

Practice

Finish the questions and the answers.

- Q: _____
A: It's fifty-eight dollars.
- Q: _____
A: There are three monkeys.
- Q: How much is this jacket?
A: _____
- Q: How do you come to school?
A: _____

