

Read the letter carefully and fill in the blanks with your personal information. Tap the microphone and speak to fill in the blanks. When you pronounce the sentences, say the full phrase, not just the missing words. For example, if the letter says "My name is _____.", you should say "My name is (your name)."

Dear _____,

Hello! My name is _____. I am very happy to write to you and get to know you. I think the United States is a fascinating country with many famous places, traditions, and interesting history.

I am _____ years old and I live in _____ neighborhood. In my free time, I enjoy spending time with my family and friends. I also love learning about different cultures and new places around the world.

I am from _____, a country with beautiful landscapes and delicious food. One day, I hope to visit the United States and explore its cities, museums, and natural wonders.

I would love to hear more about your life in the U.S. What do you like most about your country? I hope we can be good friends and share more about our cultures.

Best wishes,
