Indicator at a Glance

The "Market Structure with Inducements and Sweep (MSIS)" indicator gives traders precise insights into market movements and price action types. It identifies Inducement (IDM) zones, where price moves to attract more liquidity. These levels lure traders into entering positions and falling into price traps.

This tool, especially within ICT and Smart Money styles, provides traders with better insights for entry points.

Market Structure and Liquidity Hunt Indicator in an Uptrend

According to the USD/MXN daily chart, an uptrend begins after a Change of Character (CHoCH); with each Break of Structure (BOS) on the chart, the indicator automatically identifies and marks it.

Liquidity Hunt in Daily Time Frame

Market Structure and Liquidity Hunt Indicator in a Downtrend

As shown in the image below, a downtrend begins in the USD/CAD pair in the 1-hour time frame after a Break and Change of Character (CHoCH). With each Break of Structure (BOS), price lows are broken, and the indicator automatically marks liquidity and inducement zones.
