

Object pronouns it • themLet's learn!

Mr Lo is my uncle. He is clever. I like him.
 Amy is my friend. She is nice. I like her.

object pronoun
 ↓
 object pronoun

subject pronouns	object pronouns
They	them
It	it
He	him
She	her

In statements, we use subject pronouns before verbs. We use object pronouns after verbs or prepositions.

A Replace the underlined words with 'it' or 'them'. Follow the example.

- We like hot chocolate. We drink hot chocolate in winter. it
- First wash the mushrooms. Then cut the mushrooms into small pieces. _____
- The robot is big. I like the robot. _____
- This is my cat. I like playing with my cat. _____
- These are my sandwiches. You can eat my sandwiches. _____
- The dog is hungry. Let's feed the dog. _____
- Put the cakes in the oven and bake the cakes for 5 minutes. _____
- I like reading storybooks. I read storybooks every night. _____

Date: _____

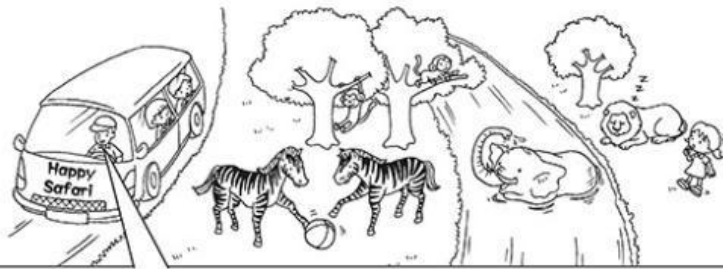

B Fill in the blanks with 'it', 'them', 'him' or 'her'.

- 1 This cupboard is dirty. Please help me clean _____.
- 2 Tim is my best friend. I like talking to _____.
- 3 Where are my gloves? I can't find _____.
- 4 Aunt Sara is very nice. My sister and I like _____.
- 5 This is my book. You can read _____.
- 6 First wash the potatoes. Next bake _____ for twenty minutes.
- 7 First put some ham on the bread. Then put some cheese on _____.

Fill in the blanks with the correct subject pronouns or object pronouns.

Welcome to Happy Safari! Don't worry, we're safe on this bus. The animals can't see us, but we can see ① _____! There's an elephant in the river. Can you see ② _____? ③ _____'s having a shower! There are some monkeys in the trees. Can you see ④ _____? There are two zebras on the grass. ⑤ _____'re playing. Do you want to play with ⑥ _____? There's a lion near the tree. ⑦ _____'s sleeping. Oh no! That girl is standing near ⑧ _____!