Cat

/kæt/

Distinctive features: Plosive, velar, voiceless

The black cat is sleeping on the couch.

Baker

/beɪ.kəɹ/

Distinctive features: Plosive, velar, voiceless

The baker makes delicious bread every morning.

Back

/bæk/

Distinctive features: Plosive, velar, voiceless

He turned back to check if he had locked the door.

Goat

/goʊt/

Distinctive features: Plosive, velar, voiced

The goat is eating grass in the field.

Agree

/əˈgriː/

Distinctive features: Plosive, velar, voiced

I completely agree with your idea.

Bag

/bæg/

Distinctive features: Plosive, velar, voiced

She packed her bag before leaving for the trip.

Food

/fuːd/

Distinctive features: Fricative, labiodental, voiceless

I love eating spicy food.

Coffee

/ˈkɑː.fi/

Distinctive features: Fricative, labiodental, voiceless

She drinks coffee every morning.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Roof
/ruːf/

Distinctive features: Fricative, labiodental, voiceless

The cat is sitting on the roof.

Voice
/vɔɪs/

Distinctive features: Fricative, labiodental, voiced

Her voice is very beautiful

Over
/ˈoʊ.vɚ/

Distinctive features: Fricative, labiodental, voiced

The plane flew over the city.

Leave
/liːv/

Distinctive features: Fricative, labiodental, voiced

He decided to leave early.

Think
/θɪŋk/

Distinctive features: Fricative, interdental, voiceless

I think we should go now.

Nothing
/ˈnʌ.θɪŋ/

Distinctive features: Fricative, interdental, voiceless

There is nothing in the fridge.

Teeth
tiːθ/

Distinctive features: Fricative, interdental, voiceless

She brushes her teeth twice a day.

This /ðɪs/

Distinctive features: Fricative, interdental, voiced

This is my favorite book.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Brother
/ˈbrʌ.ðɚ/
Distinctive features: Fricative, interdental, voiced
My brother is older than me.

Breathe
/briːð/
Distinctive features: Fricative, interdental, voiced
Take a deep breath and relax.

See /siː/
Distinctive features: Fricative, alveolar, voiceless
I can see the mountains from my window.

Listen
/ˈlɪ.sən/
Distinctive features: Fricative, alveolar, voiceless
Please listen carefully to the instructions.

Bus
/bʌs/
Distinctive features: Fricative, alveolar, voiceless
The bus arrived late today.

Zoo
/zuː/
Distinctive features: Fricative, alveolar, voiced
We visited the zoo last weekend.

Busy
/ˈbɪ.zi/
Distinctive features: Fricative, alveolar, voiced
She is very busy with work.

Buzz
/bʌz/
Distinctive features: Fricative, alveolar, voiced
I heard the buzz of the bees outside.

LIVEWORKSHEETS