

If play, will play
Will play if play

If don't/ doesn't play, won't play
Won't play if don't/ doesn't play

| Хто виконує діюна частині if | +                                                                       | -                                                                                        |
|-----------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| I, you, we, they                        | If we win, he'll celebrate.He'll celebrate if we win  | If we don't win, he won't celebrate.He won't celebrate if we don't win |
| he, she, it                             | If it rains, I will go out.I will go out if it rains. | If it doesn't rain, I won't go out.I won't go out if it doesn't rain.  |

6 Complete the first conditional sentences with the correct form of the verbs in brackets.

- 1 If I _____ for the job, I'll get it. (apply)
- 2 Olive _____ to the party if you don't invite her. (not come)
- 3 If you go to the concert, you _____ Jack there. (see)
- 4 We _____ any money if we don't work this afternoon. (not earn)
- 5 You will get better if you _____. (practise)
- 6 I _____ you with your homework if you tidy your room. (help)
- 7 I won't sing if you _____ me to. (not want)
- 8 If it's sunny we _____ for a picnic. (go)
- 9 If Jason _____ any money we'll lend him some. (not have)
- 10 Henry will get married in June if Susie _____ 'yes'. (say)

Score __/10