

Science Review

Matching

Column A

- _____ Photosynthesis
- _____ chromosomes
- _____ nucleus
- _____ cytoplasm
- _____ gills
- _____ metamorfosis
- _____ cell membrane

Column B

- 1. the structure that surrounds the cell and protects it.
- 2. Most crustaceans breathe with this organ
- 3. is the process of transformation wich insects undergrow.
- 4. the structure that directs the work of the cell.
- 5. is the chemical process by which a plant produces food.
- 6. the jellylike fluid that fills the cell.
- 7. the threadlike structures in a cell that determine the characteristics of the organism and how it runs.

Choose the word that better completes the sentence.

- 1. _____ all plants in this family have blossoms with five petals.
- 2. _____ It is the third largest family of flowering plants.
- 3. _____ It is the most important family of food producing plants like rice, corn, and oaks.
- 4. _____ Is the largest flowering family.
- 5. _____ This family grow from bulbs storehouse made with layers.
- 6. _____ The green pigment in leaves is chlorophyll, which absorbs red and blue light from sunlight.
- 7. _____ The process by which insects change form as they grow is called
- 8. _____ Mussels, oysters, clams, and scallops are all....
- 9. _____ An invertebrate that builds a protective limestone cup at the base of its body is the.
- 10. _____ Many crustaceans have legs.

