UNIT 13 + 14 TEST

Matching

A - Terms	B - Definitions
1. Registered nurse (RN)	A. A test that nurses must pass to get a license.
2. Licensure exam	B. The total number of nurses working in healthcare.
3. Workforce	C. A licensed healthcare professional who has completed a nursing program and passed the licensing exam.
4. Associate's degree	D. A two-year degree program for nurses.
5. Bachelor's degree	E. A four-year degree program for nurses.
6. Nurse Practice Act (NPA)	F. A law that regulates nursing practice in a state.

Fill in the Blanks

vaccine , licensure exam , shortage, registered nurse, experts , state board of nursing, administrative tasks, supplies, injection, electronic health record

1. A _____is a nurse who has completed a nursing program and passed the required licensing exam.
2. The _____oversees the licensing and regulation of nurses within a specific state.
3. Due to the increasing number of elderly patients, there is a _____of nurses in many hospitals.
4. In order to work as a licensed nurse, you must pass a _____.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

5. Many healthcare _____believe that higher wages can help solve the nursing shortage.
6. The nurse administered an _____to the patient to reduce pain.
7. The hospital uses an to store and manage_____ patient records efficiently.
8. The government encourages people to get a _____against influenza.
9. Scheduling appointments and handling paperwork are examples of _____
10. Hospitals need a constant supply of medical _____ such as gloves and syringes.

Multiple Choice

1. A nurse who has passed the licensure exam is called a _____.

a) Pharmacist
b) Registered nurse
c) Surgeon
d) Dentist

2. The test that nurses must pass to get a license is called the _____.

a) Graduation test
b) Driving test
c) Licensure exam
d) Hospital entrance exam

3. If there are not enough nurses in a hospital, we call this a _____.

a) Nurse surplus
b) Nurse shortage
c) Nurse practice
d) Nurse restriction

4. A nurse gives an injection to a patient to _____.

a) Make them sleep
b) Reduce pain
c) Increase heart rate
d) Help them walk

5. A licensed practical nurse usually works under the supervision of a _____.

a) Patient
b) Registered nurse

LIVEWORKSHEETS

c) Security guard d) Janitor

6. What can hospitals do to reduce waiting times for patients?

a) Hire fewer nurses b) Improve patient flow

c) Remove hospital beds d) Close the emergency room

7. A hospital keeps patient records using an _____.

a) Electronic health record b) Notebook

c) Text message d) Bulletin board

8. The government encourages people to get a vaccine to _____.

a) Prevent disease b) Make them stronger

c) Help them sleep d) Make them taller

9. Scheduling patient appointments is an example of _____.

a) Surgery b) Administrative tasks

c) Physical therapy d) Emergency care

10. Hospitals always need a supply of _____.

a) Gloves and syringes b) Shoes and hats

c) Chairs and tables d) Books and magazines

LIVEWORKSHEETS