

1 Is it good advice or bad advice? Write the numbers in the correct column.

I want to be better at English.

This is my advice.

good advice	bad advice
1	—
—	—
—	—

- You should watch cartoons in English.
- You shouldn't read English books.
- You should only practise English at school.
- You shouldn't speak your own language in English lessons.
- You should always do your English homework.
- You shouldn't learn new words.

2 Give some good advice. Complete the sentences with should or shouldn't.

- | | |
|---------------------------------|--|
| 1 I've got toothache. Anne | 4 I think I've got a broken arm. Fatima |
| 2 I've got a temperature. Simon | 5 Oh dear! I've got a cut on my finger. Lulu |
| 3 I've got the flu. Carlos | 6 Ow! I've got a sore throat. Jake |

- Anne should go to the dentist and she shouldn't eat so many sweets.
- Simon shouldn't run around and he should take his jumper off.
- Carlos should drink lots of water but he shouldn't go outside.
- Fatima should tell the teacher and the teacher should call her mum.
- Lulu should wash her finger and she should put a plaster on it.
- Jake shouldn't talk and he should rest.

3 Give advice to Vicky.

I've got a stomach ache.

- She should have a warm drink.
- She should rest.
- She shouldn't eat anything.
- She shouldn't take any medicine.