Present continuous (neagtive and interrogative) 🍀

Rewrite the sentences below as negative and interrogative sentences. Use the Present Continuous tense and write the full forms of the verbs (ex. I am, he is)

The airport security officers are checking passengers' bags right now.

Negative: _____

Interrogative: _____

The baggage handlers are loading the luggage onto the conveyor belt.

Negative: _____

Interrogative: _____

The customer service agents are assisting a group of tourists.

Negative: _____

Interrogative: _____

The shuttle bus drivers are driving passengers to the departure terminal.

Negative: _____

Interrogative: _____

The pilots are preparing for take-off.

Negative: _____

Interrogative: _____

The receptionist is greeting new passengers arriving at the lounge.

Negative: _____

Interrogative: _____

The maintenance engineer is fixing an issue with the runway lights.

Negative: _____

Interrogative: _____

The airline manager is discussing the flight schedule with the supervisors.

Negative: _____

Interrogative: _____

The air traffic controllers are monitoring the flight paths carefully.

Negative: _____

Interrogative: _____

The cleaning lady is cleaning the waiting area before the next flight arrives.

Negative: _____

Interrogative: _____