

Grammar training

Reported Speech

Match the two sentences.

1. While staring at her notes with a tired smile, Jessica said that he had finally beaten my high score.

2. The waiter politely asked us

whether the soup contained any dairy products.

3. At the store, Mark asked me

if I had a reservation.

4. With tears in her eyes, she begged them

that she had been studying all morning and still hadn't touched history yet.

5. While playing video games, my younger brother said to wait a few more minutes as the kitchen was still preparing our meals.

6. The customer asked the chef that Grandma was coming to stay with us next weekend.

7. Before handing out the papers, the teacher told the students to help him carry the groceries to the car.

8. As I approached the desk, the receptionist asked to give her another chance to explain.

9. Looking over the guest list, they wondered not to talk during the exam.

10. As the line grew longer, he asked which candidate had more experience.

11. During the interview, I wanted to know

he had been too harsh during the discussion.

12. Seeing I was worried, he assured me

how long they had been waiting.

13. During dinner, Mum mentioned

whether I was planning to join them for dinner.

14. While browsing the menu with curiosity, she mentioned that everything was under control.

15. After the meeting ended, Josh admitted that she had never tasted Thai food before.

