

Careers Vocabulary

Drag the words to their definitions.

someone who learns a job by working with a person who is already very skilled at that job proof that you have completed a short training or have passed a test _____ a level of education earned by completing a long course of study _____ a strong feeling that you should enter a certain career or a belief that God has called you to follow a certain career _____ proof that you have completed all the courses needed to be able to do something a type of job that you keep for a long time; after you've become very good at it, it lets you move up in the business/field and take on more responsibility _____ permission, usually by the government, to do something _____ a type of job that requires long training and very advanced skills _____ what you do to earn the money you need to live _____ a type of job that requires special skills and some training; it often requires the skilled use of your hands _____ degree

profession

license

diploma

trade

certificate

apprentice

vocation

occupation

career