

Exercise 1: Choose the correct participle form

1. (Walking / Walked) through the park, she enjoyed the fresh air.
2. The car (damaging / damaged) in the accident was towed away.
3. (Having finished / Finishing) his work, he went home.
4. (Seeing / Seen) a police officer, the thief ran away.
5. The students, (having studied / studied) all night, were very tired.

◆ Exercise 2: Rewrite the sentences using a participle clause

Example:

✓ She opened the door and saw a stranger. → Opening the door, she saw a stranger.

1. She walked down the street, and she listened to music.
2. Because he didn't know the way, he got lost.
3. After she had finished her homework, she went out with her friends.
4. The man who was injured in the accident was taken to hospital.
5. Since he had spent all his money, he couldn't buy a ticket.

Exercise 3: Complete the sentences using the correct participle clause

1. _____ (watch) a scary movie, she couldn't sleep at night.
2. The woman _____ (sit) by the window is my aunt.
3. _____ (not have) any experience, he found it difficult to get a job.
4. _____ (impress) by his work, the manager offered him a promotion.
5. _____ (lose) his passport, he had to go to the embassy.

◆ Exercise 4: Correct the mistakes in the sentences. Type the correct sentence

1. Having see the rain, they decided to stay inside.
2. The book written for teenagers is really interesting reading.
3. Walked down the street, I saw an old friend.
4. The girl standing near the door was look nervous.
5. Having being late, she missed the beginning of the meeting