

UNIT 9 MUSIC 3

1. You'll hear a radio programme about some historic places to visit. For each question, fill in the missing information in the numbered space.

HISTORIC PLACES TO VISIT
Black Rock Caves <ul style="list-style-type: none">Over 2 million years oldFor half a million years, people and animals, especially (14) _____, lived hereSpecial evening tours during the month of (15) _____.
Salter House <ul style="list-style-type: none">Built in the year (16) _____Made famous by the television series called Aunt DorothyAll visitors want to see Dorothy's (17) _____
The Old Port <ul style="list-style-type: none">Have a ride on an old tram to the (18) _____ villageIn the factory, find out how people used to make (19) _____

2. Complete the dialogue with questions starting with Do you know.../ Could you tell me.../ Do you think.../. There is an example:

Do you know where the Galaxy Gallery is?

It's straight down King Street.

It'll take you about 15 minutes on foot.

No, there isn't a bus.

I think it stays open until six.

It opened about six months ago.

Yes, it's definitely worth visiting.

3. Rewrite the two sentences as ONE sentence using a PARTICIPLE CLAUSE. There's an example:

There are some people. They're making a terrible noise in the street.

⇒ There are some people making a terrible noise in the street.

You can hear birds in the trees. They are singing.

Sometimes at night you hear dogs. They are barking.

The man is in the garden. He's wearing a blue jumper.

I looked up and saw a small plane. It was flying overhead.

The people won't be allowed to enter. They have arrived late.

4. Five sentences have been removed from the text below. For each question, choose the correct answer. There are three extra sentences which you do not need to use.

Jane had always lived in the city, amidst the hustle and bustle of tall skyscrapers and busy streets. Growing up in such a fast-paced environment had its benefits. (1) _____. However, she was increasingly tired of everything around her: the noise, the traffic, the stress.

Everything changed when she visited her grandparents in the countryside one summer. Walking through the vast green fields, listening to the gentle chirping of the birds, and feeling the cool breeze on her face was a refreshing experience. (2)_____.

By the end of her stay, Jane found herself contemplating a life outside the city. She felt an unusual connection to nature and started exploring the idea of permanently moving to a rural area. Six months later, Jane made up her mind and decided to leave her city apartment. (3) _____. Her friends thought she was making a hasty decision, but she felt it was the right choice for her.

Now, living in the countryside, she has her own garden and even a few farm animals. (4) _____. There's a sense of community she had never experienced before. While she occasionally misses the convenience of city life, the natural beauty and calmness of her new surroundings more than make up for it. (5) _____. She often jokes that the only traffic she encounters now are the sheep crossing the road.

- A. The peace and quiet were in complete contrast to the noisy city life she was accustomed to.
- B. She secured a job in a local school and rented a small cottage by the river.
- C. She spends her mornings tending to her plants and feeding the chickens.
- D. Many nights, she found herself looking at the starlit sky from her bedroom window.
- E. There were always things to do and places to visit.
- F. But the constant noise and chaos often left her feeling exhausted.
- G. She loves visiting the local farmer's market on weekends.
- H. The people living there seemed content and relaxed.