I. READING

Read the conversation and choose the best answer.

Example

Doctor King: Good morning, William. I'm Doctor King. What's the matter?

William: H

1 Doctor King: When did you start to feel ill?

William:

2 Doctor King: Tell me what you ate yesterday evening.

William:

3 Doctor King: Did the nurse take your temperature?

William:

4 Doctor King: Great! Take this medicine twice a day until you feel better.

William:

5 Doctor King: No, it doesn't. Now, don't have more than one pancake in future! OK?

William:

A Fish, then four pancakes and a large apple pie.

B It really hurt when I woke up this morning.

C Sure! I don't want to feel as sick as this again!

D If you want. But some kids helped me fix it.

E Yes. She said it was fine.

F I started practising when I was about five.

G OK. Does it taste nice?

H I've got a terrible stomach-ache. Example

Buildings

Example

Thousands of years ago, people didn't stay in the same place because they had to travel find food. They lived in caves or slept in tents were made from animal fur. They cooked their food on fires that also kept them warm the long, cold and wet winters. Fires kept people safe too wild animals are afraid of fire.

Our homes changed a lot since then! Most people now live in warm, dry and safe buildings.

In some big cities you can find new buildings that might have more a hundred floors. These are called skyscrapers.

Some skyscrapers have gardens on roofs. You can make a 'green roof' by planting different kinds grass there. On some city buildings, you can also see 'green walls'.

In big cities, green roofs and walls is a really good idea. The leaves on the plants help clean the air and make our environment much
