TEXT ANALYSIS - VERBS

to claim, to imply, to argue, to question, to discuss, to portray, to illustrate, to convey, to focus on, to minimize, to state

FILL IN THE BLANKS WITH THE CORRECT FORM OF THE VERBS LISTED ABOVE:

1. The professor _____ that the theory of evolution is widely accepted by the scientific community.
2. In the meeting, the team _____ the different strategies for increasing market share.
3. The article _____ the impact of climate change on coastal cities rather than rural areas.
4. The politician attempted _____ the severity of the economic crisis during the press conference.
5. The movie _____ a young artist's struggle to achieve success in a competitive industry.
6. The author _____ that technology has improved communication but also created new challenges.
7. Many conspiracy theorists _____ that the moon landing was faked.
8. His sarcastic tone seemed _____ that he didn't take the issue seriously.
9. The journalist _____ the accuracy of the official report on the investigation.
10. The poet's use of vivid imagery helps _____ a sense of nostalgia for simpler times.
11. The diagram _____ how the water cycle works in nature.

LIVEWORKSHEETS