Stop Hunt High

1-hour chart of USD/CHF (U.S. Dollar/Swiss Franc)

In the USD/CHF currency pair chart, after forming a liquidity pool range with equal highs, the market moved towards the liquidity pool (LF).

Following the liquidity hunt up to the 0.91525 level, the market temporarily corrected and, after gathering the remaining liquidity at the price lows, reached its lowest point at 0.90884. However, after this correction, the market began its upward trend powerfully, with sharp movements.

Stop Hunt Low

15-minute chart of Gold (XAUUSD)

In the 15-minute (XAUUSD) chart, the market first broke through the price high of 2358.50 with a sharp upward move, capturing the necessary liquidity.

The price then retraced to the 2354.40 level, which acted as a support point. At this level, the market gathered liquidity at the low and regained strength, climbing to a new high of 2387.40.

This new level acted as a strong resistance, and the market began its downward trend from this point. These changes reflect the market's precise behavior in hunting liquidity and utilizing support and resistance levels.
