

An unusual relationship

Most people love dogs, but you don't often find orangutans that are in love with them too! However, Surya the orangutan is the exception. He and his dog friend, Roscoe, are two animals

(1) _____ friendship is unique. Surya and Roscoe live at the Myrtle Beach Safari,

(2) _____ is a 50-acre nature park, in South Carolina, USA. In 2008, (3) _____ Surya was riding on an elephant with the director of the safari, a lost dog suddenly came out of the woods.

Surya jumped off the elephant and ran to the dog. They started playing together and have been best friends ever since. Now they go to the pool in the the park, (4) _____ they swim and play around. Surya holds Roscoe by the tail and Roscoe pulls him around the water. Surya takes Roscoe for walks around the park and even gives him his monkey biscuits. This friendship,

(5) _____ is very unusual, has made many people around the world smile.