

Put the sentences (a-c) in the correct orders to make a logical text

Question 1: Cultural heritage is expected to be passed down for future generations. _____

- a. Because it includes buildings, traditions, art, and even languages that tell the story of a community, preserving cultural heritage is very important.
- b. It is also our responsibility to learn about and respect different cultures to keep them alive.
- c. Governments and organizations work hard to protect these treasures by creating laws and educational programs.

A. a-b-c      B. b-a-c      C. a-c-b      D. b-c-a

Question 2: Choose the sentence that can end the text (in Question 1) most appropriately.

- A. I think preserving cultural heritage is important for adults.
- B. However, preserving cultural heritage can sometimes be very expensive.
- C. Protecting cultural heritage truly helps US understand our history better.
- D. I hope every country will protect only its own cultural heritage.

Question 3: Mark had just moved to London and was surprised by how people ate. In his home country, most people eat together as a family. _____

- a. Many people eat quickly, often grabbing food on the go or ordering takeout here.
- b. Mark also noticed that meals are usually larger in the evening, with dinner being the main meal of the day.
- c. However, one thing was the same: people still value sharing food with others during holidays and special occasions.

A. a-b-c      B. b-a-c      C. c-a-b      D. a - c - b

Question 4: Choose the sentence that can best complete the story (in Question 3) most appropriately.

- A. I think it is interesting to see how eating habits change depending on where you live.
- B. I wish everyone ate the same way, no matter the country.
- C. Eating fast food is bad for your health and should be avoided.
- D. I hope that all cultures keep their traditional eating habits forever.

Question 5: I had always planned her trips by myself, but this time, I wanted something different. I chose a package holiday. _____

a. I also liked that the travel agency offered help in case there were any problems during the trip.

b. Everything was included: flights, hotels, and even some meals and tours.

Although it was a bit more expensive than booking everything separately, I felt more relaxed knowing everything was taken care of.

A. a-b-c      B. b-a-c      C. c-a-b      D. a-c-b

Question 6: Choose the sentence that can best complete the story (in Question 5) most appropriately.

A. I decided never to book a package holiday again.

B. I think booking everything by yourself is always better.

C. I was glad she chose the package holiday because it made everything easier.

D. I hope that travel agencies stop offering package holidays in the future.

Question 7 : I loved playing video games and chatting with my friends online.

_____

a. At first, I didn't think it would help, but after following their advice, I realized my eyes felt less tired.

b. To help protect my vision, they suggested I take breaks every 20 minutes and spend more time outside in natural light.

c. However, lately, my parents noticed that I was sitting too close to the screen, which could harm my eyes over time.

A. c-b-a      B. b-a-c      C. c-a-b      D. a-c-b

Question 8: Choose the sentence that can best complete the story (in Question 7) most appropriately.

A. My parents finally took away all my screens to stop my eyesight from getting worse.

B. I believe that avoiding screens completely is the best way to prevent short-sightedness.

C. I hope I stop playing video games forever to protect my vision.

D. I finally learned that small changes could make a big difference in protecting my eyes.

Question 9 : I always dreamed of becoming an astronaut, so I was curious about how astronauts train. _____

a. Astronauts also train their bodies by exercising regularly and practicing how to move in zero gravity.

b. But the most important thing is to work well in teams since space missions require cooperation and trust.

c. I discovered that they need to spend years preparing, including learning how to operate spacecraft and studying science.

A. c-b-a      B. b-a-c      C. c-a-b      D. a-c-b

Question 10: Choose the sentence that can best complete the story (in Question 9) most appropriately.

A. I hope astronaut training becomes easier in the future.

B. I think astronaut training sounds very challenging but exciting at the same time.

C. I believe that only the smartest people should train to become astronauts.

D. I think astronaut training takes too long and is unnecessary.

Question 11 : Self-study is becoming more popular among students. How can students make the most of their self-study time? _____

a. They can start with creating a quiet and comfortable study space which helps them to focus better on their work.

b. Additionally, setting clear goals for each study session can keep students motivated and organized.

c. Remember to take short breaks during study time can help refresh the mind and improve concentration.

A. a-b-c

B. b-a-c

C. c-a-b

D. b-c-a

Question 12: Choose the sentence that can best complete the text (in Question 11) most appropriately.

A. I hope every student enjoys studying alone and never needs help.

B. I believe self-study is not necessary for students who attend classes regularly.

C. Overall, self-study can be very effective if students follow these tips.

D. Some students should not study alone because it can be too difficult.

Question 13 : Landslides can be very dangerous natural disasters. What causes landslides, and how can we stay safe? _____

a. Landslides often occur when heavy rain makes the soil weak and causes it to slide down a hill.

b. People living in areas prone to landslides should be aware of warning signs, like cracks in the ground or increased water flow.

c. It is also important to have a safety plan in place, such as knowing where to go if a landslide happens and they may lose their house.

A. a-c-b

B. b-a-c

C. c-a-b

D. a-b-c

Question 14: Choose the sentence that can best complete the text (in Question 13) most appropriately.

A. Understanding landslides can help keep people safe in affected areas.

B. I believe that landslides are not a big problem for most people.

C. I hope scientists find a way to stop landslides from happening in the future.

D. Some people should not worry about landslides because they live far away from it.

Question 15 : I was excited to start a new school year, but soon I faced a problem. At first, I made new friends and enjoyed my classes. _____

a. I felt sad and didn't want to go to school anymore.

b. However, after a few weeks, some students started making fun of me because of my old backpack.

c. I decided to talk to my teacher and ask for help, and she was very supportive and helped me to report that to school council.

- A. a-b-c      B. b-a-c      C. c-a-b      D. a-c-b

Question 16: Choose the sentence that can best complete the story (in Question 15) most appropriately.

- A. I think bullying is a normal part of school life.
B. I learnt that it's important to stand up for myself and ask for help when needed.
C. I hope that everyone learns to ignore bullies and just focus on their studies.
D. I believe that talking to friends is always enough to solve problems at school.

Question 17 : Cultural diversity enriches our society. _____

- a. Therefore, learning about different festivals and cuisines from around the world is also a way to explore the cultures of many countries.
b. First, celebrating various festivals brings people together and promotes understanding.
c. Many countries have unique cuisines that reflect their history and culture.

- A. a-b-c      B. b-c-a      C. c-a-b      D. a-c-b

Question 18: Choose the sentence that can end the text (in Question 17) most appropriately.

- A. In summary, I hope that people will always respect different cultures.
B. In short, I think that some cultures are more interesting than others.
C. Overall, I believe that embracing diversity makes our world a better place.
D. In conclusion, I believe that learning about other cultures can be boring.

Question 19 : My grandmother often shares her recipes with me, and I love cooking with her. _____

- a. While we baked together, she told me stories about her childhood and how she learned to cook.
b. I realized that cooking was not just about the food; it was also about the memories we created together.
c. One day, she decided to teach me how to make her famous apple pie.

- A. a-b-c      B. b-c-a      C. c-a-b      D. a-c-b

Question 20: Choose the sentence that can end the text (in Question 19) most appropriately.

- A. I believe that these moments strengthen our family bonds and keep our traditions alive.
B. I think recipes should only be shared with close friends because they are secret.
C. I hope to learn more recipes, so I can preserve my family's cooking tradition.
D. I believe that my grandmother is too old to teach me anything new.

Question 21 : Last summer, I spent a month with my aunt in the countryside. _____

- a. At first, I thought it would be boring without the city's excitement, but I was pleasantly surprised.
b. I enjoyed the fresh air, beautiful landscapes, and the peacefulness of nature.

c. I also learned about gardening, which was a skill I had never thought about before.

- A. a-b-c      B. b-a-c      C. c-b-a      D. a-c-b

Question 22: Choose the sentence that can end the text (in Question 21) most appropriately.

- A. I believe that the countryside is too quiet for anyone to enjoy
B. I think city life is still the best choice for young people although I also like the countryside
C. I hope to return to the countryside, but only for short visits
D. I found out that living in the countryside offers many benefits for a healthier lifestyle

Question 23: The invention of the newspaper changed how people receive information. _____

- a. This new form of communication allowed people to stay informed about local and global events systematically.
b. Then, a brilliant idea emerged in the 17th century: to print news on paper.
c. In the early days, news was shared through word of mouth or public announcements.

- A. b-c-a      B. a-b-c      C. c-b-a      D. c-a-b

Question 24: Choose the sentence that can end the text (in Question 23) most appropriately.

- A. I think newspapers are outdated in today's digital age.
B. Newspapers have played a vital role in shaping information.
C. I hope everyone realizes how important newspapers were in the past.
D. I believe newspapers should only focus on local news.

Question 25: In today's world, the consumption of fossil energy is considered to have exceeded the predicted rate, hence, saving energy is more urgent than ever. _____

- a. Many households are adopting energy-efficient appliances to reduce their consumption or using renewable energy instead of fossil fuel.
b. I learned that starting with simple actions, like turning off lights when leaving a room, can make a significant difference.
c. By making these small changes, we can help protect the environment and save money on our utility bills.

- A. a-b-c      B. b-c-a      C. c-a-b      D. b-a-c

Question 26: Choose the sentence that can end the text (in Question 25) most appropriately.

- A. I believe that we should contribute to energy conservation for a sustainable future.
B. I think energy conservation is only a concern for environmentalists.
C. I hope people realize that saving energy is not worth the effort.

D. I believe that energy-saving measures are too complicated for most people to follow.