

EXAM PRACTICE — LISTENING PARTS 1 AND 2*Exam know-how*

When you do Listening Part 2:

- If you aren't sure you understand what a speaker is saying, listen to their tone of voice. You can often tell how somebody feels by the tone they use.
- It's possible that an answer is a number, such as somebody's age or even a telephone number. Remember that you don't have to write the answer in letters and can just write the number in figures if you want to.

Grammar focus

Look at the following statements using the infinitive:

To make my mum happy, I called my grandma.

To tell you the truth, I didn't want to call my grandma.

The first expresses a purpose and tells us why the speaker did something. It is the same as saying:

I called my grandma in order to make my mum happy.

The second is a linking phrase and does not express a purpose. It is the same as saying:

Really, I didn't want to call my grandma.

Listen to these people making statements using infinitives.

Decide if they are using infinitives of purpose by circling the correct answer.

Speaker 1

- a expressing a purpose
- b not expressing a purpose
