III. READING

A) Read the problem page and match problems 1–3 with advice a–c below.

Dear Deidre

1 ____

I'm a parent of three children and there are some girls in my daughter's class who bully her on social media. She uses her phone a lot and was starting to behave strangely. I decided to look at her phone and I found some very cruel messages. I recognised one of the girls as she used to come and play when my daughter was younger. I also know her mum very well because we go to yoga together. In fact, I'll see her tomorrow. I'm so angry I want to say something to the mother, but I have to be careful and protect my daughter from more bullying.

2 ____

I think my partner is shoplifting! The last time we went shopping, I saw her take something off the shelf and put it in her bag. I couldn't believe it at first because we have a comfortable life. It all started when she lost her job two years ago and she started taking small things like sugar. We used to joke about it, but I never thought it was serious. The latest shoplifting incident has started to make me think that maybe she has a problem.

I have a friend who's always borrowing things from me. I normally don't mind, but the last time she borrowed an expensive fan. When she returned it to me, I turned it on and it didn't work. I have no real proof that she broke it, but I know that it was working perfectly when I last used it. I feel very uncomfortable telling her, but it was an expensive fan. I really don't want to lend her anything else and I'm worried about what I'm going to say the next time she asks.

A I'm afraid what she's doing is illegal and you're lucky she wasn't caught. You should speak to her and I would say, the sooner the better before she gets into trouble. Normally there's a psychological reason for stealing and it can be addictive. Some people enjoy the thrill of it. Anyway, you need to find the cause and resolve it ASAP.

B I'm sorry your daughter is having problems with bullying. As a mother, I can imagine how angry you must be feeling, but you should speak to the school before you speak to anyone else. Is there someone you can tell? Before you make any contact, if I were you, I would speak to your daughter.

C If this is a true friend, then you should be able to speak to her openly. It's unfair to abuse your generosity and if you don't tell her now, this behaviour will continue. I would just tell her politely that you noticed that it was broken. Her reaction will tell you everything you need to know.
