

1. Put words into correct forms.

I will never admit _____ (do) wrong things because I dislike _____ (be) not right. It seems _____ (be) strange but I prefer _____ (stay) like this.

It's difficult for me to arrange _____ (meet) with my friends because I can't stand _____ (choose) places where to go. Some of use like _____ (eat) sushi but other hate _____ (visit) such places.

People should try to avoid _____ (walk) in crowded places. We should refuse _____ (rest) in cafes and restaurants. If you planned _____ (have) a rest in such places it's better to decide _____ (cancel) these plans.

I asked my sister _____ (give) me an advise on what to do on weekends. She advised me _____ (buy) puzzles and enjoy _____ (gather) them. I agreed _____ (buy) them and now I adore _____ (spend) my time with them.

2. Put into correct place .

_____ (experiment)	_____ (have memory of something that happened in past.)
_____ (give up something/forever)	_____ (to do something with affords/maybe something difficult)
_____ (stop something to do other action)	_____ (don't forget to do something in future)

try+verb ing / try+to verb / stop + verb ing /

stop+ to verb / remember + verb ing / remember + to verb

3. Put words into correct forms.

When I was at school I always tried _____ (study) very hard. But I stopped _____ (do) this because I remember me _____ (realize) that more important is to try _____ (learn) what you like and remember _____ (be) yourself.