- B Paola is confident about her ability to succeed in life.
- C Paola continues to work at the university.
- D Paola has very pleasant memories of her childhood years.
- E Paola had a tough childhood.
- F Family has always been very important to Paola.

1 _____

Paola's father passed away when she was just one year old. Because of this, her mum didn't have much money and they had to sell their house and live with their elderly grandparents. Paola's mum had to work hard and so some of her friends often took care of Paola.

2 _____

She learned to read and write when she was very young and was always top of her class. She received financial support to attend an excellent university, where she studied chemistry and received a first class honours degree. Paola continued her studies by doing a Masters and a PhD, and eventually she became a professor at the university.

3 _____ She and her husband had two children, a girl and a boy, and she took time off work to look after them when they were little. Her children moved out of the family home when they were in their twenties, but, as they live locally, they visit regularly. Paola now has four grandchildren and she often looks after them.

4 _____ Although she's fast approaching retirement age, she has no intention of giving up work just yet. She's as enthusiastic now about her research in chemistry as she was forty years ago, and enjoys nothing more than acting as a role model for young scientists just starting out.
