

GRAMMAR

Part 1: Indefinite Pronouns: (someone, anyone, nobody, everything, something, everybody, nothing)

1. _____ left their jacket on the chair.
2. Does _____ want to play a game?
3. She looked for her keys everywhere, but she found _____.
4. _____ in the class enjoyed the trip.
5. He heard _____ strange outside his house last night.
6. I asked for help, but _____ came to assist me.
7. Don't worry, _____ will be fine.

Part 2: Quantifying Pronouns: (some, most, all, few, several, none)

1. _____ of my friends like pizza.
2. _____ of the water spilled on the floor.
3. Only _____ people attended the meeting.
4. He invited ten friends, but _____ of them showed up.
5. _____ students in the class completed the assignment.
6. I bought apples, but _____ of them were fresh.
7. _____ of the cake was eaten before dinner.

Part 3: Identify the Type: Write I if the underlined word is an Indefinite Pronoun and Q if it is a Quantifying Pronoun.

1. (Everybody) enjoyed the concert. ____
2. (Some) of the books are missing. ____
3. There is (nothing) in my bag. ____
4. (Few) of my friends have been to another country. ____
5. (Someone) knocked on the door. ____
6. (Most) of the food was delicious. ____