Indicator in an Uptrend

In the uptrend of the USD/CAD chart, price action begins with a fake breakout to attract liquidity. This liquidity grab triggers a market trend reversal and strengthens the bullish momentum.

After identifying a Change of Character (CHoCH), the indicator searches for an FVG zone to issue a buy signal.

Indicator in a Downtrend

In the 30-minute Ethereum price chart, the price first captures liquidity above resistance areas. This liquidity grab is accompanied by a trend reversal and bearish momentum, resulting in a Change of Character (CHoCH).

After identifying the last bearish SFP, the indicator looks for a fair value gap (FVG) in the price movement direction to issue a trade signal.
