

C

Look at the chart below that breaks down the Jenkins Family daily activities. Then, circle the correct answers in parenthesis and write the correct adverb (listed in the large text below) in the spaces provided.

non-stop

daily

lazily

hard

completely already

DAILY ACTIVITIES	Mom	Dad	Little Todd	Big Todd
Do dishes				X
Sweep floors			X	X
Mop floors				X
Clean bathrooms			X	X
dust furniture			X	X
cook food				X
wash car			X
wash clothes				X
get groceries		X		X
pay bills		X		X
watch TV	X	X	X	X
play video games	X
chat with friends	X	X
drink beer		X	X
smoke cigars	X			X
eat snacks	X	X	X	X

1. (Understandably / Fortunately / Surprisingly), the parents don't do any of the housework.
2. The parents _____ eat and play, (incredibly / especially / in contrast) mom.
3. (Above all / Sadly / Certainly), Little Todd is _____ drinking beer.
4. Mom sits around the house and does nothing. Big Todd, (on the other hand / surely / especially), does almost everything.
5. The parents should be _____ ashamed, mom (fortunately / amazingly / in particular).
6. (When / While / Certainly) Dad doesn't do much, he at least pays some of the bills.
7. Mom thinks drinking beer is bad, (whereas / clearly / specifically) Dad likes to drink _____. (In contrast / Definitely / Incredibly), he even lets Little Todd drink.
8. Dad has asthma, so (especially / strangely / understandably), he doesn't smoke cigars. (Above all / In contrast / obviously), each day Mom and Big Todd smoke an entire box of cigars _____. There is (amazingly / clearly / whereas) something not right with this family.
9. The kids do all the work in the house, (fortunately / decidedly / particularly) Big Todd, but (similarly / particularly / instead of), Little Todd works pretty _____ too.
10. Mom (while / obviously / equally) doesn't like it when Big Todd asks her to stop chatting with friends and help out around the house.

Match the adverbial phrases in each list to the sentences below them, and then mark if the adverbial phrase describes, "how", "when" or "where".

Adverbial Phrase

It's a group of words group of words that tells "how", "when", or "where"

almost as much as · on Saturdays · in a few minutes all afternoon · better than

1. _____ I will finish this exercise.
2. Nadia likes seafood _____ I like menudo.
3. We played video games _____.
4. Leo makes microwave popcorn _____ Martha does. Martha always burns it.
5. _____ she has pizza for breakfast.

how	when	where
	✓

through the tunnel · in the morning · in the park on the sidewalk · more loudly than

6. Frank fell _____.
7. The elephant walked _____.
8. My brother eats _____ my dad does.
9. We're leaving _____.
10. We used to always play _____.

how	when	where

in the car · worse than · after they finish lunch
in the middle of the river · early in the morning

11. I spilled coffee all over _____.
12. Carla sings _____ she plays trombone.
13. His car landed _____.
14. Tim started working _____.
- 20 15. _____ they always take a nap.

how	when	where

Phrasal Verbs

A verb + adverb combination is a phrasal verb when the combination means something different than what the verb alone means.

- Run across -

to find something or someone unexpectedly.

"I was cleaning the closet and ran across some old cassettes with songs from the 80s"

Vs.

Verbs

followed by an adverbial phrase

Not all cases of verb + adverb are phrasal verbs. Sometimes the adverb (or adverbial phrase) is simply describing the verb in terms of "how", "when" or "where".

He ran.
He ran where?

He ran across the street.

run out of run into go over hand out leave out look into look up turn into

E

A to crash with something
B omit
C research a database
D convert, become
E exhaust a resource
F investigate
G distribute
H review

Match the phrasal verbs above with their meanings listed on the right. Use the [verb + adverb] combinations above in the sentences below. In the spaces to the right, write "PV" if it's a "phrasal verb", or "V/A" if it's just a verb with an adverb.

- Can you _____ there and tell me if you see Bob. _____
- I _____ a tree on my bike. Not smart. I don't recommend it. _____
- I need to _____ why the house smells like a dead animal. _____
- I _____ all the flyers, but everyone just threw them in the trash. _____
- If you don't know what a word means, _____ it _____ in a dictionary. _____
- We _____ the barn when it started raining. _____
- He _____ the building when the earthquake began. _____
- Don't _____ the meat _____ overnight. I will spoil. _____
- When he's angry, he _____ an enormous raging green monster. _____
- We _____ the parking lot and stopped the car. _____
- When I _____ her eyes, it's like I'm experiencing a nightmare _____
- We should _____ the plan one more time. _____
- Don't stick your _____ the window of the train. _____
- He _____ gas. _____
- We _____ this detail, because we thought it was ridiculous. _____
- Brian _____ and saw the black cloud of smoke. _____