

Kazakhstan in Action!

- The 16th International Astronomy Olympiad took place in Almaty and was a very successful event for all who took part.
- The Baikonur Cosmodrome is the largest operational spaceport in the world. It is located in a semi-arid region where temperatures go from 45 degrees Celsius in summer to -40 degrees Celsius in the winter.
- An 8th grade student from the Kostanay region called Oleg Lilo created a mini-laboratory with a camera and a laser to study the Moon.
- In order to visit the Baikonur Cosmodrome you need special permission unless you are travelling with a tour group.

Read sentences and choose True or False.

1. The 16th International Astronomy Olympiad was held in Almaty.	TRUE	FALSE
2. The Baikonur Cosmodrome is the smallest spaceport in the world.	TRUE	FALSE
3. Oleg Lilo is a university student from the Kostanay region.	TRUE	FALSE
4. The Baikonur Cosmodrome is located in an area with extreme temperatures.	TRUE	FALSE
5. You can only visit the Baikonur Cosmodrome with special permission or on a tour.	TRUE	FALSE