

Summer Plans

Hi! My name is Lucas, and summer is coming soon! I'm getting very excited because I have many fun plans.

Next week, I'm visiting my grandparents in the countryside. They have a big garden and a small swimming pool. I love spending time there!

On July 5th, I'm going to a summer camp with my best friend, Adam. We are staying there for two weeks. We are sleeping in tents and playing lots of games. It's going to be awesome!

In August, my family and I are traveling to the beach. We are staying in a hotel near the sea. My sister and I are learning how to surf! I can't wait!

What about you? Are you doing anything fun this summer?

Comprehension Questions

Read the text again and answer the questions:

Grammar Explanation: Present Continuous for Future Arrangements

We usually use the present continuous tense to talk about future plans when we have already decided and arranged to do something.

◆ Structure:

Subject + am/is/are + verb (-ing)

◆ Examples from the text:

- I'm visiting my grandparents next week. ✓
- We are going to a summer camp. ✓
- My family and I are traveling to the beach. ✓

These are plans that are already decided and arranged for the future.
