Household Objects

1 In Sudan, some people keep their food cold in clay pots. They put one pot in another, with wet sand between them. A fridge needs electricity, but these pots don't. They can keep food cold anywhere.

2 Some people in Mali cook with a solar oven. A solar oven uses the sun. When this oven is in the sun, it's very hot, and it cooks the food quickly.

3

Do you like these chairs? This is a restaurant in Japan. The chairs don't have legs, but they're comfortable.

4 Some people in Sarawak, Indonesia, sleep in hammocks. They don't use beds. The hammocks are very comfortable.

17 Look at 16. Find the words. Then write.

At home, we keep food cold in a [1]_____. When we cook food, we use an [2]_____. When we eat dinner, we sit on [3]_____s. We sleep in [4]_____s.

THINK BIG

Do you want the things in the pictures in your home? Why/Why not?
