

will or am/is/are going to

1. Circle the correct item.

- 1) It will/is going to be Friday tomorrow.
- 2) I'm afraid it won't/isn't going to be sunny tomorrow.
- 3) She has bought a computer. She will/is going to attend computer courses.
- 4) Watch out! Your bike will/is going to fall down!
- 5) I think Nick and Andy will/are going to take part in this competition.
- 6) Sue has finished her work so she will/is going to have a rest tonight.
- 7) We have saved enough money so we will/are going to buy a new fridge.
- 8) Helen will/is going probably to visit us next Saturday.
- 9) One day people will/are going to live on other planets.
- 10) It's getting cold. I will/am going to put on my warm sweater.

2. Complete the sentences with will or to be going to.

It _____ be Sunday tomorrow and my friends and me _____ take part in the Art Festival which takes place in our school every year. Nick has made a model of the plane and he _____ exhibit it at the handicraft exhibition. I believe his model _____ have a success. Monica _____ sing her new song. She has composed some really good ones, but she hasn't decided yet which song she _____ sing. Mike and John _____ do conjuring tricks. They have learnt some very interesting tricks for this festival. Ben and Diana haven't told what they _____ to perform, but I think they _____ dance their favourite waltz. As for me, I _____ take the photos of my friends. I hope we _____ make a wonderful wall newspaper to tell everyone about our Art Festival.