

1. Which of these lines shows repetition?

- A. The sky was blue and the grass was green.
- B. I walked to school in the morning.
- C. I ran and ran and ran until I reached the gate.
- D. The flowers were blooming in spring.

2. Which is the best reason to repeat a verb in a poem?

- A. To make it shorter
- B. To create rhythm and energy
- C. To explain what a verb is
- D. To describe a place

3. Why is home insulation important?

- a) It makes the house look bigger
- b) It reduces energy needed for heating/cooling

- c) It attracts solar power
- d) It prevents rainwater collection

4. What can be added to a compost container?

- a) Plastic bags
- b) Spoiled food and garden trimmings
- c) Glass bottles
- d) Metal cans

5. Which quote shows the value of water conservation?

- a) "Energy is eternal delight."
- b) "When the well is dry, we know the worth of water."
- c) "Waste not, want not."
- d) "The early bird catches the worm."

6. How can you reduce energy waste of home devices?

- a) Leave them plugged in 24/7
- b) Use a power strip with an on/off switch
- c) Cover them with a piece of cloth
- d) Paint them black

7. What does "upcycling" mean?

- a) Throwing something away when it gets old
- b) Making something new and useful from old items
- c) Buying something brand new from a store
- d) Cleaning your room once a week

8. What might be a challenge of vermicomposting (using worms) mentioned in the materials?

- a) Worms look cute in the evening

- b) Maintaining proper temperature and humidity
- c) The smell attracts mountain animals

9. What pronoun shows a sentence is written in the “second-person point of view”?

- A. I
- B. They
- C. You
- D. We

10. What is the benefit of using “our” in a sentence like “Our world needs help”?

- A. It sounds kinder.
- B. It makes the writer happier.
- C. It makes the reader happier
- D. It shows that the writer and reader are on the same team.

11. What should you do first when reading an informational text?

- A) Read only the last sentence
- B) Memorize and repeat all the words in the text
- C) Read and then sleep for a while
- D) Look for all the pictures

12. What is one benefit of low-flow showerheads mentioned?

- a) They increase water colour
- b) They reduce water bills
- c) They heat water faster and make beautiful bubbles
- d) They help clean your toes faster

