

What's the word?

1. A group effort to promote something or bring attention to an issue.
2. An action that breaks the law and can be punished by authorities.
3. When there are too many people living in one place, causing problems.
4. A person who is the same age or has the same social position as you.
5. The act of criticizing someone's body appearance in a hurtful way.
6. Relating to activities or interactions with other people.