

A or An? – Fill in the Blanks

Objective: Use "a" or "an" before the correct word.

Level: A1-A2 (Beginner)

Instructions:

Fill in the blanks with a or an. Then write the correct word from the box.

Word Bank: aircraft, control tower, pilot, co-pilot, cabin crew, passenger, air traffic controller, airport, aircraft mechanic, aviation security officer, aircraft maintenance technician, baggage handler, aircraft fueller, flight instructor, cargo agent, flight paramedic, reservation agent, flight attendant, service, health, leadership, communication, skill, pressure, teamwork, self-reliance

Exercise:

1. She is ____ pilot.
2. We saw ____ aircraft on the runway.
3. He works as ____ air traffic controller.
4. This is ____ airport in New York.
5. Maria is ____ flight attendant.
6. John is ____ co-pilot on the flight today.
7. My sister wants to be ____ aviation security officer.
8. They called ____ aircraft mechanic to fix the problem.
9. He wants to be ____ reservation agent.
10. We need ____ baggage handler for this flight.
11. Sarah is ____ cargo agent.
12. I'm training to be ____ flight instructor.
13. The airline hired ____ aircraft fueller.
14. She is ____ cabin crew member.
15. I talked to ____ passenger on the plane.

16. That is ____ control tower.
17. He is ____ aircraft maintenance technician.
18. She is ____ flight paramedic.
19. Communication is ____ important skill.
20. Teamwork is ____ key value in aviation.
21. Leadership is ____ useful quality for a manager.
22. Health is ____ top priority for crew members.
23. This job requires ____ lot of pressure handling.
24. You need ____ strong sense of self-reliance.
25. Good service is ____ must in this industry.