

Phrasal Verbs

1. Fill in the Blanks

Use the correct phrasal verb in the correct form:

1. After years of struggling, the rebels finally had to _____ and surrender.
 2. She really _____ her mother—they both love painting.
 3. Please _____ your shoes before you decide to buy them.
 4. The firefighters managed to _____ the blaze before it spread.
 5. He couldn't _____ the loss of his pet for months.
 6. After arguing for an hour, he finally _____ and admitted he was wrong.
 7. The children _____ their toys before dinner.
 8. I don't know how she manages to _____ her annoying brother.
 9. Can you help me _____ the total cost of these items?
-

2. Matching Exercise

Match the phrasal verb to its meaning:

Phrasal Verb	Meaning
A. get over	1. resemble a relative
B. take after	2. calculate
C. add up	3. stop resisting
D. give in	4. recover from an illness
E. put away	5. tidy or store things

3. Multiple Choice

Choose the correct option:

1. When the fire alarm rang, everyone rushed out while the staff tried to _____ the fire.
a) put away
b) get over
c) put out
d) give in
2. I really _____ my father—we both love science and hate mornings.
a) take after
b) take back
c) get on with
d) try on

3. You should _____ these shoes to see if they fit.
- a) put out
 - b) try on
 - c) take back
 - d) get over
-

☐ 4. Correct the Mistake

Find and correct the incorrect phrasal verb:

- 1. I can't get on my flu—this is the third week.
 - 2. She asked me to take off the jeans before buying them.
 - 3. Can you put out your books after class?
 - 4. He finally gave out after hours of arguing.
-

☐ 5. Sentence Rewriting

Rewrite the sentence using the given phrasal verb:

- 1. He surrendered after a long argument. (give in)
→ _____
- 2. She resembles her aunt a lot. (take after)
→ _____
- 3. He returned the books he borrowed. (take back)
→ _____