Why do some people _____ things?

Have you ever _____? I have,
but I've never found the answer.

So this week, I've _____-someone who can maybe – just maybe – help me understand why people collect _____.

He's Felix Moss, and he's a collector.

Felix, welcome to the podcast.

Thanks, Hana.

Now, you're a big fan of auto _____.

And you collect things from race cars.

Give me some examples of the kinds of things you collect.

Well, I have an old _____. Um ...

An old tire. Felix,

most people want to _____ old tires!

Why do you want to _____ something like that?

It's useless, right?

Well, I can't put it on my car!

So it is _____-as a tire. But that's not why I bought it.

I've loved racing since I was six years old.

So I collect stuff – like tires – to bring the sport into my life – and into my living room.

That's interesting. Wait a minute.

Are you saying you have this tire in your _____?

Yeah. And it is useful in a way.

I made a _____ from it.

Wow! That's pretty cool!

So what else is in your living room?
