

CAMPING BY THE RIVER

Read the conversation, complete the gaps using the correct possessive pronoun.

Diana: Dani! Are you ready for the camping tomorrow?

Daniel: Yes, I am. I have everything I need in my bag. The only thing I need is a flashlight. I can't find _____ anywhere.

Diana: You can use _____ if you want. Just take some extra batteries in case we need them.

Daniel: Isn't _____ electric?

Diana: No, it isn't. If you want you can use Ana's flashlight, _____ is electric.

Daniel: All right, that's an option too. What about you? Do you have everything you need?

Diana: Yes, I do. I have a huge sleeping bag, a nice tent, my mosquito repellent and comfy shoes.

Daniel: Wow, that's great! Are all these things _____?

Diana: Yes, they are. Well, the sleeping bag isn't _____.

Daniel: What's wrong with _____?

Diana: Well, it's really old and smells weird. So, my boyfriend lent me _____.

Daniel: What about Pablo and Lina? Do they have their tent ready too?

Diana: I heard they have one, but I don't know if it's _____. This one is bigger and it even includes a carpet.

Daniel: That's crazy! So much better than our tents, small and simple.

Diana: Yeah, they should use normal tents, just like _____.
