

1. What is the main goal Lacie has at the beginning of the episode?

- A. To get a job promotion
- B. To move in with her brother
- C. To rent an apartment in a luxury housing complex
- D. To become a famous influencer

2. How do people give each other ratings in the "Nosedive" society?

- A. Through facial recognition and voice commands
- B. Using a mobile app that allows them to give 1 to 5 stars
- C. By scanning identity cards at social events
- D. Through government-issued scorecards

3. Why does Lacie accept Naomi's invitation to be her maid of honor?

- A. Because they are best friends again
- B. To raise her rating by being seen with highly rated people
- C. Because she wants to sabotage the wedding
- D. To reconnect with Naomi emotionally

4. What happens to Lacie's rating throughout the episode?

- A. It increases after her speech at the wedding
- B. It stays the same because she avoids social interaction
- C. It gradually drops because of a series of bad social experiences
- D. It drops after she deletes her account

5. What is the effect of having a low rating in Lacie's world?

- A. You gain more privacy and freedom
- B. You are ignored by technology
- C. You lose access to jobs, housing, and even transportation
- D. You can only connect with other low-rated people

6. What type of tone does the episode use to criticize social media culture?

- A. Humorous and light-hearted
- B. Warm and emotional
- C. Dark and satirical
- D. Neutral and factual

7. What does Lacie's experience at the end of the episode suggest?

- A. That true happiness comes from being the highest rated
- B. That freedom from ratings leads to honesty and real emotion
- C. That she will work hard to rebuild her rating
- D. That people should avoid technology completely