

Simple Past III

New words: draw lines:*

pyramid

Christmas market

origami crane

fan

Story time: Fill in the blanks with the correct simple past (irregular verbs AND regular verbs) form of the verbs in brackets

Being different is wonderful

Lina and her friends _____ (be) at school. They _____ (come) from different countries. Lina _____ (be) from Spain. Her friend Ali _____ (be) from Egypt. Emma _____ (be) from Germany, and Kenji

LIVEWORKSHEETS

_____ (be) from Japan. They _____ (speak) different languages at home, but they _____ (speak) English together at school.

One day, their teacher, Mrs. Brown, _____ (say), "Today we will learn about each other." She _____ (ask) the children to bring something from their culture. Lina _____ (bring) a fan with bright colors. "This is from Spain," she _____ (say). "We _____ (use) it when it was hot."

Ali _____ (bring) a small pyramid. "This is from Egypt," he _____ (say). "It _____ (be) a symbol of our history."

Emma _____ (show) a picture of her family at a Christmas market. "This _____ (be) in Germany," she _____ (say). "We _____ (have) this market in winter. We _____ (drink) hot chocolate."

Kenji _____ (bring) origami, a paper crane. "We _____ (make) this in Japan," he _____ (say). "It _____ (be) for good luck."

The children _____ (look) at the objects. They _____ (smile). They _____ (learn) about each other. They _____ (see) that they _____ (be) different, but they _____ (be) also the same. They all _____ (like) to play, they all _____ (like) to learn, and they all _____ (like) to help each other.

Mrs. Brown _____ (say), "Diversity _____ (mean) we _____ (be) different, but we _____ (be) all special."

LIVEWORKSHEETS

The children _____ (decide) to make a big picture. They _____ (draw) the fan, the pyramid, the Christmas market, and the origami crane. They _____ (write), "We _____ (be) all friends."

The next day, they _____ (show) the picture to the class. Everyone _____ (be) happy. They _____ (clap) and _____ (smile). Lina, Ali, Emma, and Kenji _____ (know) that being different _____ (be) wonderful.

LIVEWORKSHEETS