

PASSAGE 31

Tra ID Đề [5704] - Tra ID Video [5705]

Vietnam is home to many beautiful natural sites. Three notable ones are Ha Long Bay, Phong Nha-Ke Bang National Park, and the Mekong Delta. Ha Long Bay, (1) _____, offers stunning scenery and opportunities for boat tours and kayaking. (2) _____. Phong Nha-Ke Bang National Park, also a UNESCO site, is famous for its impressive caves and underground rivers. Adventure seekers can explore the vast network of caves, including Son Doong, the largest cave in the world. The Mekong Delta, with its intricate network of rivers and lush greenery, (3) _____. Visitors can take boat tours through the floating markets and enjoy the rich biodiversity. (4) _____. The scenery stretches from coastal wonders to underground marvels and serene river landscapes.

- A. is perfect for experiencing rural Vietnamese life
- B. known for its emerald waters and towering limestone islands
- C. Each of these locations provides a unique glimpse into Vietnam's natural beauty
- D. It's a UNESCO World Heritage site, making it a popular tourist destination

Question 1: _____ Question 2: _____ Question 3: _____ Question 4: _____

PASSAGE 32

Tra ID Đề [5706] - Tra ID Video [5707]

Since the world has become industrialized, there has been an increase in the number of animal species that have become extinct or nearly extinct. Bengal tigers, (1) _____, now are thought to be only 2,300 in number. By the year 2025, their population in the world is estimated to be down to zero. (2) _____. Animals like the Bengal tiger, as well as other endangered species, (3) _____. International laws protecting these animals must be passed to save them. Countries around the world have begun to solve the problem in many ways. (4) _____. Money provided by world organizations has been spent on maintaining the parks. The use of products made from endangered species has stopped.

- A. are very important to the world's ecosystem
- B. Reserves and national parks have been established
- C. which were once found in large numbers in jungles
- D. The dangerous thing is that people don't hunt them for money but mainly because they enjoy hunting them

Question 1: _____ Question 2: _____ Question 3: _____ Question 4: _____