

WHAT ARE LANDSCAPES LIKE IN THE HOT ZONE?

1. Match each landscape with its correct definition.

Rainforest		A grassy landscape with few trees, alternating wet and dry seasons.
Savannah		A dry, hot area with little rainfall and scarce vegetation.
Desert		A hot and humid area with tall evergreen trees and high rainfall.

2. Complete the sentences using the words in the box.

humidity	oxygen	vegetation	precipitation	Amazon
----------	--------	------------	---------------	--------

- Rainforest have high levels of _____, which makes them very humid.
- The _____ River is found in the rainforest.
- Rainforests release a lot of _____ into the atmosphere.
- The _____ is very dense in rainforests.
- Rainforests receive high _____ all year round.

3. Drag and drop each feature under the correct landscape.

Cacti	Seasonal rain	Giraffes and zebras	Little vegetation	High precipitation
Tropical climate	Dunes	Evergreen trees	Rocky deserts

RAINFOREST	SAVANNAH	DESERT

4. Multiple-choice questions.

1. What is a typical feature of deserts?

High rainfall

Many rivers.

Low precipitation.

Evergreen forests.

2. Which animals are common in savannahs?

Polar bears

Lions and zebras

Monkeys and parrots.

Penguins.

3. Why do few people live in rainforests?

There is no water.

The area is too cold.

The heat and humidity make life difficult

There is no food.

5. Label the pictures. DO NOT USE CAPITAL LETTERS.

