

Lesson 1 Achieving Your Dreams

授業用ワークシート 6 (Make It Your Own!)

Class

Number

Name

A Read rapidly the whole text of Lesson 1 again. Choose one statement that does NOT agree with the content of Lesson 1 in each question. <技能><思考力・判断力>

1. a. Shohei throws right and bats left.
b. Shohei could not win the high school baseball championships at Koshien.
c. Shohei became a Major League player before he joined the Hokkaido Nippon-Ham Fighters.
2. a. There were three children in Shohei's family.
b. Both Shohei and his older brother enjoyed badminton and swimming.
c. Shohei's father advised Shohei to learn the basics of playing baseball, so he was able to become a better player.
3. a. Shohei invented a method of a "Target Achievement Sheet" by himself.
b. In a Target Achievement Sheet, you should put eight small targets around the central square.
c. Shohei learned that it was important to write down goals on paper.
4. a. Shohei did his best to practice batting when his leg was injured.
b. If you fail at something, you should understand that it is the end.
c. Achieving big dreams is not an easy thing to do.

※読んで答えるのに要した秒数をもとに wpm を算出しよう。 $344 \text{ (words)} \div \boxed{} \text{ (minutes)} \times 60 = \boxed{} \text{ (wpm)}$

B Complete the following summary. After that, read your summary to your partner. <思考力・判断力・表現力>

Summary

Shohei Otani liked (1.) in his childhood. He enjoyed different sports before starting (2.). He joined a (3.) when he was seven. His father was a coach of the team and taught Shohei how to (4.) and play baseball. In his high school days, Shohei's coach taught him a (5.) for achieving goals. It was the use of a "(6.)". Shohei decided on his final goal to become a (7.). He made great (8.) to achieve it. He tells us that it is very important to make every effort and try hard.

ヒント 1.1語 2.1語 3.3語 4.1語 5.1語 6.3語 7.3語 8.1語