READ THIS EMAIL AND ANSWER THE QUESTIONS

Subject: So excited for your trip to London!

Hi John,

I'm so excited you're coming to London! It's going to be amazing to take a break and finally spend some time together. I really miss you and I can't wait to show you around the city.

Your departure is on Thursday, right? Make sure your passport is ready and check your luggage allowance before you leave. Don't worry—I'll meet you at the airport. The plane lands at 2:30 p.m., so I'll be there a bit earlier.

We have many fun things planned! On the first day, we are going to walk around the city center and visit Big Ben and Buckingham Palace. In the evening, we are having dinner at a rooftop restaurant—I already made a reservation! On Friday, we are taking a boat on the Thames, and I think you will love the view from the London Eye. Saturday is going to be our shopping day—we'll go to Camden Market and Oxford Street. We are going to try some street food too. On Sunday, we'll relax at Hyde Park before you go to the airport.

I also booked a room for you at my place, so no need for a hotel!

Let me know if there's anything else you want to do. I'm so happy you're coming!

See you very soon!
Best,
Jessy

Questions

1. What time does the writer plan to meet their friend at the airport?
2. What has the writer already done for the friend's trip? (Name two things)
3. What activities are planned for the first day in London?
4. Where is the writer planning to have dinner on the first night?
5. What does the writer plan to do on Friday?
6. What will the friend do on Saturday?
7. What does the writer say about the hotel for the friend?

LIVEWORKSHEETS

COMPLETE THE SENTENCES WITH FUTURE VERBAL TENSES

1. Our flight to Paris _____ at 7:00 a.m. tomorrow.
2. We _____ (visit) the Louvre Museum at 10 a.m. on Monday.
3. I think we _____ (need) a taxi to the airport.
4. Look at those clouds! It _____ (rain) before we leave.
5. My friends _____ (not come) with us because they have exams.
6. The train to Rome _____ (leave) at 6:45 p.m.
7. We _____ (stay) in a hotel near the beach during our vacation.
8. I promise I _____ (send) you a postcard from Italy!
9. Watch out! You _____ (miss) the bus if you don't hurry!
10. What time _____ the museum _____ (open)?

LIVEWORKSHEETS